2012 Rose Show Winners

Proud stewards of the Laura Conyers Smith Municipal Rose Garden in Jacob L. Loose Memorial Park, Kansas City, Missouri

The Kansas City Rose Society's 2012 Rose Show attracted 352 entries from 23 exhibitors. It was held on June 2, 2012 in the Loose Park Garden Center.

The Queen of the show was Moonstone shown by Glenn and Carolyn Hodges. The King was Bles Bridges shown by Ed and Betsy Holland, who also provided the Princess—a St. Patrick.

The Queen Miniature/Miniflora rose was Conundrum shown by the Hodges team; the King and Princess were Kitty Hawk and Minnie Pearl, respectively, shown by the Hollands.

The overall sweepstakes winners were the Hollands with 53 blue ribbons. Donna Kitterman claimed 43 blue ribbons and Glenn and Carolyn Hodges took home 29 blue ribbons.

In two new categories this year, Cindy Duke won the award for Novice Entry and Daniella McCasland won the ribbon for Youth Entry.

The Children's Art Contest winner was Lily Altenhofen, 11, a student from Visitation School.
